Survey of Australian Leganto sites
Self-management experience
Self managed: 14%
Library managed: 21%
Combined: 65%
Unit Coordinators unwilling
Support staff task
Improved quality
Perception of reduced service
Support education and training
Transitioning Historical Quality
Reducing academic workload
Troubleshooting
Textbooks
Role of the Library
Satisfaction with take-up
Increase self-management

Increase knowledge of functionality
Self-managed with library-managed options

Satisfied with take-up

Goal to increase self-management rate

Transitioning from established list processes
DIY for Academics

- Implementation
- Australian Experience
- Challenges and Plans
Challenges and Plans

Self-management & Engagement Challenges
Publishing

Full engagement with interface

Using more self-management functionality

Support content
Transitioning users of old system

Uneven usage across faculties

Use of Learning Management System
Challenges and Plans

Self-management & Engagement Challenges

Future plans
Publishing
Student Benefits
Targeted Communications
Support Model
User experience testing
Challenges and Plans

Self-management & Engagement Challenges

Future plans
DIY for Academics

- Implementation
- Australian Experience
- Challenges and Plans
Self-Management
Library roles
Plan to increase take-up
University-wide approach
You too?!
DIY for Academics: achieving self-management in Leganto

Kirstie Nicholson
kirstie.nicholson@uwa.edu.au