Join us at the IGeLU Conference, Developers Day & Knowledge Day
IGeLU would be delighted to welcome you to our annual conference in September 2024.
The 2024 event will be held in Copenhagen, Denmark between the 9th-12th of September with Developers Day running on Thursday the 12th in parallel to a new format for the Ex Libris Knowledge Day event.

If you are seeking your manager's support in order to attend, we have summarised some useful information below to help you develop a case.

Making the case to attend
- The annual IGeLU conference is a truly diverse and international offering with community authored content and networking opportunities with global reach;
- Engage with librarians, technologists and policy-makers from academic, national, government and specialist libraries with differing perspectives, experiences and new ideas;
- Be inspired by our keynote speakers and innovative and collaborative developers'
  network;
- Contribute your ideas and priorities to the IGeLU community;
- Be part of our dynamic and proactive community with opportunities to join and influence the discourse about Ex Libris products plus major topical library, technology and publishing trends;
- Be the first to gain direct insight into the Ex Libris development paths for their products;
- Meet face to face with Ex Libris senior and product management
- Get access to expert advice and leave with practical actionable solutions
- Learn more about and participate in IGeLU community initiatives
- Direct access to the conference presentations and recordings (no embargo period)
